has been adopted beginning with elimination of child labour from hazardous occupations. So far, National Child Labour Projects for rehabilitation of children withdrawn from work have been sanctioned in 100 child labour endemic districts in the country. The Child Labour (Prohibition & Regulation) Act, 1986 prohibits employment of children in 13 occupations and 57 processes.

(c) India was the first country to join ILO's International Programme on Elimination of Child Labour (IPEC) in 1992. The action programmes taken up under IPEC cover areas such as awareness raising, rehabilitation and education. 165 action programmes have been taken up under IPEC from 1992 to till date, for coverage of about 90,000 children. 17 projects are under implementation in the country as on June 2001.

Utilisation of MPLADS Fund

*458. SHRI VEDPRAKASH P. GOYAL: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether any demand has been made for widening the scope and guidelines for utilising the MPLADS funds specifying the nature of projects to be funded therewith; and
